Miss Julia Marlowe, of New York.

Miss Julia Marlowe, the clever actress of New York City, has the following to say in a recent letter to the Peru-na Medicine Company:

"I am glad to write my endorsement of the great remedy, Peru-na, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Mrs. Jennie Robb-Maher, of Kansas.

Mrs. Jennie Robb-Maher, attorney-at-law and President of the Equal Suffrage Association of Kansas City, Kas., writes thus of Peru-na: "Some of my friends have suffered with chronic catarrh and Peru-na cured them. The treasurer of our association, Miss Hattie Reichel, is using it for catarrh of the stomach, and by her physician's advice is taking it, with the very best results."

"I know by personal experience of its value. I endorse it."—Mrs. Robb-Maher.

Miss Dade Stegeman, of Illinois.

Miss Dade Stegeman, Superintendent of the Chicago North Side Woman's Club, writes as follows about Peru-na from No. 10 Lowell place, Chicago, Ill.: "Peru-na has often been used by members of our club in cases of stomach trouble and general debility—also recently in cases of la grippe, and always with the most beneficial results. I think a great deal of Peru-na—often recommend it to my friends, and am glad to say all who have tried it speak a good word for it."—Dade Stegeman.

Mrs. G. Briggs, of Minnesota.

Mrs. G. Briggs, Treasurer and Conductor of the William Downs Relief Corps, No. 43, of the W. R. C. of the State of Minnesota, writes the following from 2419 Central avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.: "My health was completely broken down from overwork. My appetite was lost, my sleep fitful and I found no relief from the prescriptions of doctors. On the advice of friends I tried Peru-na, and before finishing the second bottle I was completely restored."—Mrs. G. Briggs.

Mrs. Clara Makemer, of Illinois.

Mrs. Clara Makemer, housekeeper for the Florence Crittenden Anchorage Mission, writes from 302 Chestnut street, Chicago, Ill., as follows: "After repeated use of Peru-na and carefully noting the results, I can only speak of its medicinal value in the highest terms. I have also used it in cases of female irregularities and weak nerves common to the sex, and have found it most satisfactory. Peru-na deserves the confidence of all."—Clara Makemer.

Miss Mary J. Kennedy, of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Mary J. Kennedy, manager of the Armour & Co.'s exhibit, Transmississippi Exposition, Omaha, writes the following from 842 West Sixty-second street, Chicago, Ill.: "I found the continual change of diet incidental to eight years' traveling upset my digestive system. I decided to try Peru-na, and soon found myself well repaid. I have used it for three months, and feel rejuvenated."—M. J. Kennedy.

Mrs. C. Didion, of New York.

Mrs. C. Didion of 2078 Eighth avenue, New York, says: "I believe I am cured of catarrh of the head, thanks to Peru-na." "The full feeling and terrible noise in the head has disappeared." "My trouble began with a cold in the head; my nose ran for a day continuously, and I would awake with a terrible headache in the morning." "The doctor consulted gave me something to relieve the pain, but it left my head stopped up."—Mrs. C. Didion.

Miss Emma Herziger, of Wisconsin.

Miss Emma Herziger of Neenah, Wis., says: "Last year my system was completely run down and our family physician suggested that I take a journey to recuperate." "My sister-in-law then told me to try Peru-na, first telling me how it had helped her. I did so, and found three bottles as good as a three weeks' vacation." "I shall always speak well of Peru-na."—Emma Herziger.

Mrs. Frederick Williams, of Chicago.

Mrs. Frederick Williams, President of the South Side Ladies' Aid Society, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following words of praise for Peru-na from 973 Cuyler avenue, Chicago, Ill.: "Four bottles of Peru-na completely cured me of catarrh of the head of several years' standing, and if my husband feels badly, or either of us catch cold, we at once take Peru-na."—Mrs. Williams.

Miss Frances M. Anderson, of Washington.

Miss Frances M. Anderson, Corresponding Secretary of the Higher Educational League, writes from the "Astoria," Washington, D. C., the following: "About two months ago I was taken very ill with la grippe and was obliged to go to bed. I took three bottles of Peru-na with very beneficial results and was able to leave my bed in a week."—Miss Frances M. Anderson.

Mrs. Sextus Ross, of Marshall, Ill.

Mrs. Sextus Ross, of Marshall, Ill., writes: "For several years I was troubled very badly with catarrh of the head, having headache almost constantly. The discharge from the catarrh, which made my breath very bad, kept dropping in my throat. I took Peru-na and have never felt better in my life."—Mrs. Sextus Ross.

Mrs. Mary Shanks, of Marshall, Okla.

Mrs. Mary Shanks, of Marshall, Okla., writes: "Peru-na is the best medicine on earth. It has cured me of catarrh that I have had for seven years, and I only took six bottles. When I wrote you for advice I had frontal headache, stringy mucus in the throat, my stomach bloated often, and bowels irregular. Now I am cured."—Mrs. Mary Shanks.

Miss Evelyn Morse, of Minnesota.

Miss Evelyn Morse of 651 Adams street, Minneapolis, Minn., says: "I suffered for nearly three years with catarrh of the stomach. A friend advised me to try Peru-na. After using it for three months am pleased to say that it cured me entirely of all my symptoms."—Evelyn Morse.

Miss Hanna, of Washington.

Miss Nellie Hanna, niece of Senator Mark A. Hanna, writes the following letter from 1331 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C.: "I used your Peru-na as a tonic, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all sufferers. I have also used it for dyspepsia with very best results."—Miss Nellie Hanna.

Miss Barbara Alberty, of Wisconsin.

Miss Barbara Alberty, of Seventh and Walnut streets, Appleton, Wis., says: "For years I have suffered with backache and severe pains in the side. I doctored so much that I became discouraged." "A school friend told me how very much Peru-na had benefited her and I sent out for a bottle, which did more to relieve me than all the other medicine I had ever taken. In fact I was completely cured in two weeks."—Barbara Alberty.

Mrs. A. A. Allison, of Chicago.

Mrs. M. A. Allison, of 759 Sheffield avenue, Chicago, Ill., is the assistant matron of the People's Hospital. She has the following to say of Peru-na: "I have had frequent opportunities to observe the wonderful curative effects of Peru-na, especially on persons suffering with a congested condition of the head, lungs and stomach, generally called catarrh."—Mrs. M. A. Allison.

Miss Ellen Royer, of Louisville, O.

Miss Ellen Royer, of Louisville, O., in speaking of the national catarrh remedy, Peru-na, says: "I am now enjoying good health. My bowels are regular, and I have a good, healthy complexion. I cannot thank you enough for your good advice, and the books you have sent me. I recommend Peru-na to everyone."—Miss Ellen Royer.

Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton, of Ohio.

Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton, wife of Colonel Hamilton, of the Seventh Regiment, O. V. I., writes from 259 Goodale street, Columbus, O., the following: "I can bear testimony as to the merits of Peru-na. I have been taking the same for some time and am enjoying better health than I have for some years. I attribute the change to Peru-na, and recommend the remedy to every woman, believing it to be especially beneficial to them."—Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton.

Mrs. Lillian Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Lillian Smith, 1238 Hancock street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I have used Peru-na for a very bad case of catarrh with the best results, as I am entirely cured, having spent very large amount of money on doctors and medicine without any profit."—Miss Lillian Smith.

Mrs. Celeste Covell, of Aurora, Ill.

Mrs. Celeste Covell, President of the Betsy Ross Educational and Benevolent Society, writes from 212 N avenue, Aurora, Ill., as follows: "Only those who have suffered with influenza and have been cured can appreciate how grateful I am to Peru-na. I only wish that all knew of its fine qualities."—Mrs. Celeste Covell.

Dr. Anna Wells, of Illinois.

Dr. Anna Wells, writing from the Park Gate Hotel, Chicago, Ill., says: "A nervous shock received by my daughter two years ago prostrated her. All the consultations and advices of brother physicians had done no good until Peru-na was advised." "She can now eat heartily of solids—she had been, not living, but dying on liquids; menstruation, easy and comfortable; had suffered from dysmenorrhea and ovaritis."—Anna Wells, M. D.

Miss Annie Wyandotte.

Miss Annie Wyandotte, of Kansas City, Mo., dramatic soprano, writes Dr. Hartman the following letter: "Peru-na has been my salvation. It has given me back a beautiful voice—a gift of God; it has brought me once more to my old profession. I can talk, now, and sing, where before I could scarcely whisper. Peru-na restored my health and voice."—Miss Annie Wyandotte.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of Utah.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City Barracks of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah, as follows to Dr. Hartman: "Two months ago I was suffering with so severe a cold that I could hardly say a word." "Our captain advised me to try Peru-na, and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."—Clarice Hunt.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of New York City.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, 38 West One Hundred and Seventeenth street, New York City, writes the following about Peru-na: "I have for years suffered with Catarrh, aggravated when I took cold, and Peru-na cured me. It is a great medicine."—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

Alvina Groth, of Appleton, Wis.

Miss Alvina Groth, 850 College avenue, Appleton, Wis., writes: "Peru-na is a fine medicine to take any time of the year, but I find it particularly helpful to withstand the wearing effects of excessive heat and summer cold. I have now used it off and on for about two years."—Miss Alvina Groth.

Miss Helen Ellis, of Michigan.

Miss Helen Ellis, President of the Women's Athens Club, Trout Creek, Mich., says: "I suffered for three years with chronic catarrh of the bronchial tubes and found no relief until I tried Peru-na." "Seven weeks' constant use of Peru-na cured me permanently."—Miss Helen Ellis.

Miss Rose Cullen, of Montana.

Miss Rose Cullen, President of the Young Woman's Club of Butte, Mont., writes: "While finishing school I became very nervous and exhausted from over-study. I was weak and sick, and could neither eat, sleep nor enjoy life. A couple bottles Peru-na put new life in me."—Rose Cullen.

Miss Anna Carsten, of Clayton, Ill.

Miss Anna Carsten, of Clayton, Ill., writes the following letter in regard to Peru-na: "Your Peru-na did me so much good I believe I should have been dead by this time had I not used it. I am feeling so well now. I have not taken any medicine for four or five months."—Miss Anna Carsten.

Miss B. E. Wentner, of Buckley, Wash.

Miss Bertha E. Wentner, a prominent Sunday-school worker, writes: "Having tried several remedies for chronic catarrh of the bronchial tubes without being helped, I tried Peru-na, and after two months' faithful use, Peru-na completely cured me."—Miss Bertha E. Wentner.

Miss Maggie Becker, of Appleton, Wis.

Miss Maggie Becker, of 663 Lake street, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peru-na: "It is with pleasure I recommend Peru-na as a splendid tonic to any over-taxed person. I have also found it a relief in cases of severe backache and pains in the chest caused by colds. We are never without it at home and consider it a household blessing."—Maggie Becker.

Miss Susan Wymar, of Illinois.

Miss Susan Wymar, a teacher in the Richmond school of Chicago, writes: "Only those who have suffered with sleeplessness from overwork in the schoolroom, such as I have, can know what a blessing it is to be able to find relief by spending a couple of dollars for some Peru-na. This has been my experience."—Susan Wymar.

Madam Baynes, of England.

Mme. Isabella Ellen Baynes, Life Governor of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of England, in a letter dated at the Hotel Saratoga, Chicago, says: "While traveling I contracted a most persistent and annoying cold. My head ached, my eyes and nose seemed constantly running, my lungs were sore and I lost my appetite, my health and good spirits. A druggist recommended Peru-na, after doctors' prescriptions failed, which cured me."—Isabella E. Baynes.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, of Washington.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the eminent barrister, of Washington, D. C., has the following to say of Peru-na: "I have used your Peru-na both for myself and my mother, Mrs. Hannah J. Bennett, now in her eighty-eighth year, and I find it an invaluable remedy for colds, catarrh, my fever and kindred diseases; also good tonic for feeble and old people."—Mrs. Belva Lockwood.

Miss Mary Goerbing, of Wisconsin.

Miss Mary Goerbing, of Medford, Wis., says: "I take great pleasure in acknowledging the curative powers of Peru-na. As a nerve tonic, a gentle stimulant to a sluggish system, and as an appetizer and restorer of lost strength and vitality of worn-out women, it is very superior."—Miss Mary Goerbing.

Miss Blanche Myers, of Kansas City.

Miss Blanche Myers, 3120 Penn street, Kansas City, Mo., has the following to say of Peru-na: "During each of the past four seasons I have caught a severe cold, when suddenly chilled after an evening party, and catarrh for several weeks would be the result. One bottle of Peru-na cured me, and I shall not dread colds any more as I did."—Blanche Myers.

Mrs. Katherman, of North Dakota.

Mrs. J. L. Katherman of Boston, N. D., writes: "Having made up my mind to try Peru-na for my health I got a bottle, and after using it I was so well pleased that I purchased three more. I was suffering with catarrh of the head and throat and was in pain from head to foot, but improved materially by the use of Peru-na."—Mrs. J. L. Katherman.

Mrs. A. S. Tipple, of Minnesota.

Mrs. A. S. Tipple, 148 Linden avenue, Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows: "Last winter in taking a journey in very severe weather, I caught a cold which settled on my lungs, developing a severe case of catarrh of the respiratory organs. My family physician gave me only temporary relief, when my son advised me to try Peru-na. I sent for a bottle and in two days the cough had nearly disappeared and within a week I felt better than ever."—Mrs. A. S. Tipple.
